

2-12-1963

Rebel Underground (12 February 1963)

University of Mississippi. Rebel Underground

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/integr\_news

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the United States History Commons

---

Recommended Citation

University of Mississippi. Rebel Underground, "Rebel Underground (12 February 1963)" (1963). Integration newspapers and newsletters. 3.

https://egrove.olemiss.edu/integr\_news/3

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Integration of the University of Mississippi at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Integration newspapers and newsletters by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Feb. 12, 1962

I

THE ISSUE UNDERGROUND

This newsletter is presented, written and financed by "OleMiss" students independent of any organization; state or local.

The purpose of this newsletter is to express the views of the majority of students at "OleMiss" which are not being presented by the official campus newspaper, "The Mississippian".

LEFTISTS CONTROL PRESS

Jimmy Robertson and his leftist minority group have gained complete control of the campus press. This group, expressing views held in common with such noted personalities as Martin Luther King, Hodding Carter, Eleanor Roosevelt, and Constance Baker (NAACP attorney for Meredith the darkie), has prostituted journalism at "Ole Miss" long enough.

A PAPER CURTAIN

The veil of non-objectivism has enveloped the campus press.

The students on this campus are being forced to financially back "The Mississippian" and have no opinion in determining its editorial policy.

In most places, the citizens have the right to buy the paper of their choice, the paper that they feel represents their point of view. By their choice, through their purchase power, they can make or break a newspaper.

At "Ole Miss" however, the students have no choice. Their subscription rate to the paper comes from a general activities fee collected at registration.

ELECTION OF EDITOR IS A FARCE

The process of electing the editor of "The Mississippian" is the same as choosing between the electric chair or the gas chamber the end result is the same.

To be eligible to run for the position of editor, one must have first been on "The Mississippian" staff for a number of semesters. This stipulation makes it virtually impossible to get any new thinkers into the position of editor.

To get on the staff, and most importantly, to stay on the staff of "The Mississippian", one must necessarily express the same thoughts of its editor.

Through this process of forced conformity or rejection of new ideas, "The Mississippian" has over the last few years been spilling the same liberal tripe as emanates from such magazines as EBONY, NEW REPUBLIC (the voice of socialism), USSR- cultural exchange magazine, and the newsletters of CORE and the NAACP.

IT IS TIME FOR A CHANGE!!!

MEREDITH!

MEREDITH- THE DARKIE.
IS HE A LIAR?

Meredith has told the court that he gets $160 a month from his GI bill, and that he has had no donations from anyone, but on this slender sum he has:

- (1) supported a wife and child
- (2) bought a Volks wagen and a Cadillac;
- (3) bought three farms in Attala County, for which he paid cash.

- (4) attended summer school for two sessions at Jackson State College
- (5) paid 40 dollars per month in Jackson for rent, while in school.

Meredith has denied any income from his three farms, and further denied that he had been promised any money for bringing this suit against the University. However, it was brought out in testimony before the court in Jackson that he had asked financial aid from the NAACP.